PEER SUCCESS LEADER JOB DESCRIPTION

About the Peer Success Leader Program
The Peer Success Leader Program is a peer support program through Academic Success Coaching. Peer Success Leaders (PSLs) are undergraduate students whose role is to provide support and encouragement to their peers as they navigate the challenges associated with adjusting to college. In this paid position, PSLs partner with students to identify obstacles to success and facilitate behavioral and mindset changes to overcome these barriers. Some of the barriers to success that PSLs may assist with include but are not limited to goal setting, interacting with professors, motivation, note-taking, organization, study skills, technology use, test taking strategies, time management, and utilizing campus resources. PSLs will be trained to use the motivational interviewing approach in their meetings with students.
